Rules and Guidelines

- A nonrefundable $20 fee is required for each competing solo and ensemble. Entry forms and payments are due by April 10, 2020. All checks are payable to KIDA, and need to be submitted with the entry form to the KIDA Contest Coordinator.
- Solo and ensemble is intended for members of active, participating units of the KIDA's current competitive season. This provides an opportunity for members of the association to highlight their talents. Performances are to be performer driven and not written / designed by performers' instruction staff.
- Performers must compete within the same division that they perform with their competitive unit.
- Solo & Ensemble Entry forms must be signed by the performers' unit instructor. The Solo & Ensemble entry form will not be accepted by the business manager unless signed by the unit's instructor. All contact must be completed for the form to be accepted.
- On the day of performance, an instructor from the performers unit must register/check-in with the performer. Performers will not be permitted entrance without a unit representative. Only the performer and the unit representative will be permitted access from the performers' registration area. All other spectators and guests must pay entry into the event.
- The time limits for all categories will be 1:30 to 2:30 minutes and a 1.0 penalty will be assessed if over or under time
- Small ensembles may not consist of more than 5 members
- All performers must arrive a minimum of 1 hour prior to the assigned performance time.
- Performers are responsible for reporting to staging area in a timely fashion. Warm-up area will be provided, and will be a communal warm-up area. Please be courteous of other performers utilizing the warm-up space.
- Only the top 3 placements in each category will be announced at the conclusion of the event.
- All registration forms must be returned to the KIDA Contest Coordinator by said date on form. Registration forms can be found on the KIDA website.
